Dear Parent/Carer

Further to ongoing discussions with schools, the local authority is able to announce that, on-site/in-school provision for the primary school age children of critical workers in Bridgend schools on 6, 7 and 8 January will now be open to all families where at least one parent is a critical worker (as currently defined by Bridgend County Borough Council).

Parents/carers are advised that the local authority will work with headteachers at the start of the New Year to determine whether this policy may be further expanded to enable more pupils to receive on-site provision on 6, 7 and 8 January. This decision will be subject to health and safety requirements and staff capacity at individual schools at that time.

With my thanks for your continuing support.

Yours sincerely

Lindsay Iorwerth Harvey (Mr)
